

Tsar's granddaughter – Duchess Irina Alexandrovna

Written by Dolgova S.R.

Tuesday, 10 November 2020 18:43

Dolgova S.R.

Tsar's granddaughter – Duchess Irina Alexandrovna

Annotation

The article is devoted to Princess Irina Alexandrovna. She was one of mysterious and insufficiently known person of the House of Romanov. Granddaughter of Alexander III and niece of Nicholas II was born in family of Grand Duchess Xenia Alexandrovna and Grand Duke Alexander Mihailovich. In 1914 she was married an Felix Yusupov. He was one of richest young man in Russia. His family was very close to Grand Duchess Elizabeth Feodorovna and they tried to convince Empress Alexandra Feodorovna that Rasputin influence is fatal. Doubtless, Irina Alexandrovna share they ideas. She was a lure on which pecked Rasputin. He was killed in house on the Moyka River.

Tsar's granddaughter – Duchess Irina Alexandrovna

Written by Dolgova S.R.

Tuesday, 10 November 2020 18:43

Княгиня Ирина Александровна Юсупова. 1914 г.

РГД. Вестник архивиста. 2013. № 3.

~~Ирина Александровна Юсупова, дочь великого князя Александра Александровича и великой княгини Александры Федоровны, была замужем за князем Григорием Григорьевичем Юсуповым. Она была известна как Цесаревна.~~